

Short Bio- 2024

Australian trumpeter Josh Rogan is the Associate-Principal Trumpet of the Auckland Philharmonia Orchestra in New Zealand. He began his musical life at a young age, playing cornet in a local brass band with his family. Since then, he has taken his love of music all over the world, performing in venues such as the Sydney Opera House, Australia; Royal Albert Hall, United Kingdom; Walt Disney Concert Hall, United States of America; Royal Concertgebouw, Netherlands; Shanghai Concert Hall, China; and the Berlin Konzerthaus, Germany.

Josh is a graduate of the University of Melbourne, the Australian National Academy of Music, and the Colburn School. He received recognition throughout his studies, including the Ormond Exhibition Scholarship for Best Results in a Final Recital (for all instrumentalists), and the Director's Prize from the Australian National Academy of Music (awarded to one graduating student each year).

As a trumpet player, he is an experienced professional musician, comfortable performing principal or section roles in a Symphony Orchestra, versatile as a chamber musician, and able to effectively lead educational workshops for musicians of all ages and skill levels. Josh is also a published composer, a skilled arranger, and an insightful conductor.

Last edited: January 2024